

Blueberry Packaging

Sonoco understands that when it comes to produce packaging, freshness and product protection are key. We offer blueberry packaging in a variety of sizes, ranging from 4.4-oz clamshells to 4.5-lb tubs—helping you meet the customer where they are, whether that's snacking on the go, or shopping in a club store.

Our blueberry clamshells and tubs feature:

- | Side-slot hole vents for freshness
- | Perimeter locks for secure machine or hand closure
- | Denesting lugs for easy separation
- | Compatibility with 5-down footprint

All are made in the USA and meet the sustainable packaging requirements of major retailers.

Sonoco now offers a broad portfolio of innovative packaging solutions tailored to the needs of the produce market—integrated with the technical innovations Sonoco has developed over more than a century. Sonoco can act as a single-source solution for all your produce packaging needs, with options ranging from flexible pouches and peel-reseal lidding, to plastic trays, tubs and hinged containers.
